

STAY with Adaptive Rec

What?

STAY (Staff Training Adventures for Youth) with Adaptive Rec is a summer internship opportunity for teens to work with Adaptive Recreation's Summer Quest Camp. Summer Quest Camp offers outdoor adventures, swimming, trips and various projects for individuals, ages 12-21, who generally benefit from extra support.

Who?

Self-starting teens, ages 15-18, who wish to work with youth with disabilities. Interns will experience adventures with extraordinary youth while gaining volunteer hours and being exposed to amazing leadership opportunities.

When?

Potential interns must be available to work at least 3 weeks of camp, plus attend the required training from June 29-July 2. Camp runs for eight weeks beginning on July 6 and ending on August 28.

How?

- STEP 1 - Review the information to make sure you qualify and are able to commit to working as a Summer Intern.
- STEP 2 - Contact Tommy Means to request an application packet. (541-682-5311 or Wayne.T.Means@ci.eugene.or.us). Applications are due by given date. Applicants who qualify will then schedule an interview with Tommy.
- STEP 3 - If selected as a Summer Intern, you will then register for the program. The total registration cost of is $125.00
